

Trip to Cows-N-Corn

All Rainbow Preschool students will be visiting Cows-n-Corn on Germantown Rd, just off Rt.28 in Midland, on October 21. There will be no classes at Rainbow Preschool that day. Parents will be responsible for transporting children to and from the farm and remain with the children in their groups throughout the morning. Everyone is welcome to join in the fun!

Date: Friday, October 21

Time: 9:15-Noon.

Please remain with your group during the field trip and show respect by listening quietly when our tour guides are speaking and demonstrating.*

Costs:

Rainbow Preschool Students - $4.00

Cost for parents and other participating siblings – $8.00 per person

(No cost for infants)

Location:

Cows-n-Corn is located just off Rt. 28 in Fauquier County, 10 ½ miles from the intersection at Fitzwater Drive where Rainbow Preschool is located.

Look for the giant ear of corn silo and turn left on to Germantown Road (Rt. 649).

The entrance will be at the top of the hill on your left (before railroad tracks).

For more information, see Mrs. Bear or visit cows-n-corn.com .

Admission price includes butter making, a small pumpkin, an ice cream snack, a hayride, walking through the corn maze, animals and active play opportunities.

You are welcome to bring a lunch and stay at the farm following the field trip. Drinks may be purchased in the gift shop.

Please complete the form below and return it to your child's teacher with payment by Friday, October 14.
